Joseph C. Boucher this week launched a new motor boat in Lake Wanderdant. An appeal was taken to the appeared for the phaintin, while attorney S. Is, Harvey represented the defendants.

Plantiff claims that on December 16, 1999, acting for himself and his brothers George and Altred, he sold to Fornes Road a black and white cow for the sum of $75. In payment for it a note for $70, payable in six months, was given hun by Horace Road; the trace was signed Road Brothers. He also sold the brothers two tons of $71 folder valued at $29, and fer this fit has not been paid.

The defendants acknowledge the includes of the cow and fodder, but the includes of the cow and fodder, but the include of the cow and fodder, but the include of the cow, because of being wook and afflicted with inderculosis, was not worth $75. The defendants week and afflicted with theoretics, was not worth $75. The defendants further claim that when Baker found that the cow was so afflicted he agreed to receive $27.50 in full payment and that they did pay to Mrs. C. fl. Baker the aum of $30 and later they presented the receipt for same and $7.50 in money and asked for the $75 note that Horace had given, but this Baker refused to give up.

The contract has been let to E. S. Morse of this city and Oliver L. Willlard is to do the mason work. It is expected that work upon the construction of the garage will commence to The testimony was taken, the argu-tion of the grants made and decision was reserved day (Friday).
